Local Items.

ED. Short communications on public questions printed—but not responsible for sentiments or expressions of correspondents—except where we refuse to give name of author.

Farmers busy cutting wheat.

The health of Hickman is splendid. The cold soda water, from the fountain of BUCK & COWGILL.

YOU CAN GET GOOD JEANS AT AMBERG'S from 20 to 40 cents.

Columbus, Ky., is to have a car hoist, which it is expected will be beneficial to the general interest of the town.

BRING YOUR WOOL.

Hickman. Highest price paid by J. H. PLAUT & BRO.

Uncle Andy Shuck, of this County, grows blue grass four feet eight inches. How much better can the central Kentucky Counties do?

Highest Prices.

Paid for WOOL and all kinds of produce by H. BUCHANAN.

It is said that the circus business has declined more rapidly for the last dozen years than any other business. Not a circus has passed down the Mississippi this year. What is the matter?

SPECIAL NOTICE!

The greatest largess ever offered in the City of Hickman can be had now in all lines of goods, at J. AMBERG'S SONS.

We are in favor of flat ponds, and advise every farmer to make one, for besides furnishing good and cheap feed for the table, a fish pond is a great pleasure to such of the friends of the possessor who can not catch a fish elsewhere.

Attention, Farmers!

Extra Machine Oil for Ringers and Mowers, at 60 cents a gallon, &c.

Hon. P. W. Hardin, the Democratic nominee for Attorney-General, will meet Mr. Brass, the Republican nominee for Governor, at the different appointments, during the illness of Dr. Blackburn.

THE PLACE TO BUY

CHEAP GROCERIES

H. BUCHANAN'S.

Attention is directed to the slower movement of the steamer Nashville, which is running especially in the trade from Columbus, Cairo, Columbia, New Madrid and Tiptonville, to point out in connection with our Railroad, it is suffered by slow gentlemen.

A TIME AND ELEGANT LINE OF GENTS AND BOYS

CLOTHING.

Underwear, Hosiery, Handkerchiefs, Ties, &c., at BUCHANAN'S Cheap store.

BITE NOTICE.

All persons indebted to J. Frenz, are notified that their claims are left in the hands of Jas. A. Warner, City Marshal, with whom they will please call and settle.

W. T. FRENZ.

Council Proceedings.

HICKMAN, KY., June 2, 1870.

Council met. Present—COUNCILMAN LINDRUM, French, Campbell, Palmer and Bushee.

The Mayor being absent, on motion, COUNCILMAN LINDRUM was called to the chair.

Reading of minutes deferred until next meeting.

ACCOUNTS ALLOWED.

On motion, the following accounts were allowed and referred to be drawn on the Treasurer for same:

M. M. May, 4 days' work, 50 cents.

ASSISTANT RELEASER.

A compensation from Jas. R. Beuchamp, in regard to assessment of property, was read, received and ordered filed.

On motion, it was ordered that Lot No. 53, assessed to Jas. R. Beuchamp, be struck off the list, his assessment reduced from $40 to $10.

SUSPENSES TO BE INVESTIGATED.

On motion, it was ordered that the Board of Health, accompanied by the City Marshal, be directed to investigate all nuisances, and report same to the Board of Health, as best to be done in order to abate same. And the Marshal was ordered to issue warrants against all persons who, after due notice, fail to abate all nuisances on their premises.

On motion, Council adjourned.

M. F. MILLER, City Clerk.

The Courier's Query Box.

[Questions asked promptly answered in this column, or published that an answer may be elicited.]

How old is Fulton County? And who have been members of the Legislature since its creation?

Fulton county was formed in 1845—taken from Hickman county. Since that year the members of the Legislature were:

Renf. Dudley, 1845.

Newton Wright, 1846-7.

W. B. McConnell, 1848-9.

Geo. Silvertooth, 1850-53-55-61-63-67-71.

Price Edington, 1851-53.

R. B. Alexander, 1855-57.

Ed. Crossland, 1857-59.

W. D. Lamont, 1859-61.

E. Beasley, 1862-63.

F. M. Ray, 1863-65.

W. R. Brumley, 1865-67.

G. S. Miles, 1867-69.

A. S. Arnold, 1871-73.

B. R. Walker, 1873-75.

Wood M. Jones, 1875-77.

Henry Campbell, 1878.

The first representative of Hickman county was Hugh McFadden, in 1822, succeeded as follows: Samuel P. McFall, Robert N. Lewis, Edward George, John Shaw, &c.

I know some Democratic object to Tilden because he submitted to the electoral count, but what does your correspondent mean by "another grave offense?"

POPEL.

He means, we suppose, that Mr. Tilden was more or less cognizant of his nephews' Polton's bargaining with the Florida board. Of which there is no proof.

Who is the acknowledged finest orator in the American Congress?

SWEENEY.

George, Long and Blackwell, of the Democrats; and Blaine, Conkling and Garfield, of the Republicans. Mr. Thurman is conceded the ablest debater of the Democrats, and Mr. Blaine on the Republicans side.

The men who might have been experts, Mr. Vaughn to come back at Arnal with an array of countercharges and perjuries were disappointed. He only said he did not desire a race made up of omissions of personal issues. He had given

THE CANDIDATES.
The Senators Con-Congress, Representatives Buzz-Buzz-Buzzing.

The candidates for the lower House of the next General Assembly, as also those for State Senator, addressed an audience of the citizens of Hickman at the Market House, Tuesday night last, as follows:

ARNOLD.—I am a candidate for the State Senate, led off by himself, principally, to the discussion of State policies, touching just enough on national questions to show why he was a Democrat. On State matters his position would be summarized.

BUCK & COWGILL.—I favor restoration of the whipping post for the lesser crimes.

AMBERG.—I want no man to be punished by hanging.

EDDIE.—Reducing salaries & District Judges to $200.

BUCK & COWGILL.—I favor a new State Constitution—principally for the reason that the sessions of the legislature to every four years, and to confine its work to general legislation.

AMBERG.—Opposed to State income tax.

BUCK & COWGILL.—These were his positions on State matters. He complimented his competitor, Dr. Watson, in the highest terms as a gentleman of worth, &c., but characterized him as a schemer.

THE HICKMAN COURIER,

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR,
LUIS P. BLACKBURN,
of Jefferson County.

FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR,
JAMES E. CANTRELL,
of Scott County.

FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL,
P. W. HARDIN,
of Mercer County.

FOR AUDITOR,
PATRICK HERWITT,
of Hardin County.

FOR TREASURER,
JAMES W. TATE,
of Franklin County.

FOR SUBDIVISION PUBLIC INSPECTOR,
JOSEPH HIGGINS PICKETT,
of Fayette County.

FOR REGISTER OF LAND OFFICE,
RALPH SHIPLEY,
of Nelson County.

EVANS, the Republican nominee
for Governor, it is said, will refuse to divide time with any one except
Dr. Blackburn.

One heavy failure after another follows in Europe. This country seems to be more than all right, by comparison.

The candidates for Governor are to speak at Mayfield on the 10th.
Blackburn will be represented by Gen. P. W. Hardin.

The foolish working going on between Democrats, denouncing each other, is bringing fearful discouragement. Some denounce Tilden, some Hendricks, some the old ticket, whereas the Republicans as they near 1880, are pooling all their differences for success.

The Mayfield Leader, of May 30, (our favorite exchange) indulges in an editorial on "County Polities." The unsolvable question which seems to worry it is, whether Graves county is in the First Congressional District, or the First District in Graves county?

The Democratic caucus have agreed to pass the different appropriation bills without delay, applying the conditions under which the money is to be used for one year,
instead of suspending the unconditional repeal as in the vetoed bill.
It is said the President will sign
the bills thus passed.

GRAVES county has seven Democratic candidates for the Legislature, and the Republicans and Greenbackers, each, assert their determination to bring out a candidate which will make a total of nine entries. The old doctor's rule,
"to avoid a complication of diseases, always threw his patients into fits"—because he was half on curing fits, and if they ran into the opposed of the judgment they will judge it.

DEMOCRATIC FOOLS.

We say, good Democrats are growing disengaged by the unseen wranglers, backbiters, jealousies, and demagogues, passing between Democratic leaders and Democratic elements.

One element denounces Tilden
and Hendricks for being too cowardly to assert and maintain their right to the great offices to which the people elected them.

Another denounces Hendricks as a fool and in conspiracy to defeat
the renomination of the old ticket—
Tilden and Hendricks.

Another denounces our present Democratic Senators and members of Congress for the attitude they now occupy as to the appropriation bills. One side says they are damaged if they do pass the bills, and the other that they are damned if they don't.

We, the Democrats out in the woods—the hewers of wood and drawers of water for the party—the "masses," as we are felicitously called by the office-holders—are growing restive, tired, and discouraged, with such conduct. We know we have no influence in national polities, except to vote, but we can see that such management is destroying every vestige of a chance for success in 1880.

The COURIER, if it was to try,
wouldn't know how to be anything else than a democratic paper, but we confess to one "grand diagnostic" at the above shape of affairs.

Men who won't accept office.

Power Behind the Throne.
Who has not wondered at the vast influence wielded over the popular mind of the North by such men as Wm. Loyd Garrison and Wendell Phillips? Neither of these men ever held a public office, or attained influence by reason of authority. Yet, Mr. Lincoln, as President of the United States, never carried the weight of popular influence possessed by Mr. Garrison. Nor does Mr. Conkling or Blaine, carry the weight of influence possessed to-day by Wendell Phillips. And why?

Garrison was, and Phillips is exceptional instances in the lives of public men. Possessed of fine abilities, fine oratory, and all the characteristics that go to make great leaders, they, neither, would ever accept an office, either elective or appointive. Hence, their utterances went to the people as disinterested, patriotic, and for the good of the country. Hence, in one sense, they became leaders of Northern sentiment over and beyond
Presidents, Senators, Congresses,
&c. &c.

Here is a grand field for men of ability and patriotism, if it will be occupied. If not, it then be a king-maker.

In Kentucky, we have a great mind which sees to have chosen this disinterested field of patriots—
Col. W. C. P. Breckinridge of Lexington. Of commanding abilities in every respect, which might entitle him to popular favor for the highest positions, but will accept no office. A firm partisan, always ready to make any sacrifice for his party, but will never court or accept any of its honors or emoluments.
Hence, we see that the aspiring candidate for State office, lunatics, fieble-minded, and editors attending the Press Convention!

In National legislation, so far as blame for the high interest rates which is grinding down the debt oppressed people, why don't make interest uniform in all the States? Why don't make interest as high in New York
as in Kentucky? Ask your friends.

The people of California propose to propose a bill in the National Legislature striking all the laws allowing diversity of interest perhaps for the year, consisting in one-half per cent. higher than the State interest in September next will be introduced.

Address of Dr. Thompson.
(From the Courier Journal.)

Dr. Lyle P. Thompson, Democratic Representative from Kentucky, writes from Washington, D. C., as follows:—

"I am a Democrat.

&lt;p
